Based on the discussion at the hearing, it appears that the case is likely to be resolved with a production of documents from another action. The Department of Justice will advise the ACLU Foundation by March 1, 2024, of the documents it will produce, and the documents that will be withheld subject to an express FOIA exemption that is clearly identified. The parties will jointly file by April 1, 2024, either a stipulation to dismissal of this case, or a status report with a proposed scheduling order. The case is stayed in all other respects pending further order.
